Few Petitions Filed For City Offices

MARCH 11TH LAST DAY FOR FILING

The city of Grayling will elect officers at the April 3rd election. In order to have a place on the ballot, petitions must be filed with the city clerk not later than 12 o'clock noon, March 11th. It is open to anyone wishing to enter, and his petition must have no fewer than 20 signatures, nor more than 40.

The names on the ballot will be voted for at the April 3rd election, and the five having the highest number of votes will be declared elected.

The names of the present councilmen are as follow: George Burke, mayor and supervisor; Frank Sales, councilman and supervisor; Al Roberts, Roy O. Milnes and Carl Jenson, councilmen.

Among that group who have filed petitions for election are George Burke, Frank Sales and Al. Roberts. Another petitioner is Holger F. Petersen. We understand that Roy O. Milnes and Carl Jenson do not choose to be candidates this time. An effort is being made to draft Mr. Milnes, for his long experience on the council and his keen understanding of the city's affairs, make his services as councilman very valuable—Grayling needs Mr. Milnes and we hope he may be prevailed upon to continue his service.

We would like to see several more petitions go on file. The more the better, just as long as they're good citizens and have an honest interest in the city's affairs. It makes no difference how many names appear on the ballot.

I sides the election of city trustees, one justice of the peace and one constable must be elected. Hans Petersen is the present justice. Morgan Paige is constable.

NOTE—Since the above was written we understand that petitions are in circulation for Roy Milnes and Carl Jenson and that they have consented to be candidates.

Woman's Club

Mrs. Roy Milnes opened her home to the Woman's Club Monday evening.

Some committees earning money for the milk fund reported. Other committees have plans for earning their money. This is one of the big projects of the club.

Mrs. Jess Sales held the interest of the club as she gave a review of "Return to Religion" by Dr. Link. This book, published in 1936 is still one of the best sellers. Back to the basic principles of religion is what seems to be necessary for mankind in their troubled age of unrest, crime and selfishness. This book is an inspiration for those looking for the higher values in life.

Airport Notes

Since 1935 an increase of 40% in personnel has been added to the aviation industry.

The oldest member to join the Michigan Flyers Inc., is 68 years young. Congratulations should be well in line for this young man.

The State Department of Aeronautics is making possible an examining physician appointed to Grayling for convenience of the members of Unit 4 and other pilots.

B. B. Soultz, state organizer for Michigan Flyers, Inc., expects to take delivery of an Aeronca Deluxe 50 next week.

Grayling seems to be setting a record in time required for formation of Unit 4 in consideration of population.

An exceptionally interesting and educational program is being set up for the ground school which will follow along with flight instruction. This school will be held one night weekly.

Interesting Facts

The engine of a plane does not support the weight of the plane in flight. The engine pulls the plane through the air at a rate of speed sufficient to create lift on the wings equal to the weight of the plane.

What if the motor stops? This so rarely happens that we hardly consider it possibility. However, the plane will still maintain speed and control in a glide with the engine entirely shut off. The plane has a gliding angle of fourteen to one (it will glide in any direction, horizontally, a distance fourteen times greater than its altitude).

For example, an Aeronca is flying at five thousand feet; we may shut off the engine by closing the throttle or turning the ignition off and gliding approximately fourteen miles from that point. We may land them in any small field within a circle twenty-eight miles in diameter, the area of which is 615 square miles. A further analysis shows that there are an average of no less than three open fields per square mile in this locality; this then provides more than eighteen hundred fields within gliding range from an altitude of one mile. Inasmuch as every landing is affected with engine shut off, we may assume then that we are making a normal landing in every respect except that we are not landing on the usual field. So what if you forget to lift the tank and run out of fuel at a reasonable altitude? Land near a filling station and fill'er up.

There is one more membership left so anyone wanting to sign up please come in and do so. See Chub DeWolfe, feature writer for the Toledo Blade, in his "Among The Folks" column recently said as follows:

"If the boys don't lose their faith, Grayling, known so well to Toledoans as a summer spot, will prove itself to be the Sun Valley of winter sports in this section of the country. They've got the snow, they've got the will up there, they've got the hills. And right now, folks like the wide open spaces outdoors and the genial comfort and friendliness within doors, that far-seeing hotel hosts provide, are having the times of their lives."

Toledoans who have been up there say that within a year or so there will be a half million dollar investment there. Grayling through the years, has won a name for itself in the summer season. Friends say that the new steel toboggans are safe and fast, and that the skiing, skating, hiking over the hills through the snow, as well as the ice fishing, are fine. They suggest that when you go up, not to fail to visit the Queen's Igloo and the giant snow man."

SUPPER PARTY

To compliment Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Canfield of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Schumann entertained with a small supper party Sunday evening.

Three tables of contract were in play throughout the evening with Mrs. C. G. Clippert and Mr. A. J. Joseph holding the high scores.

Builds A Model New Home

Charles Clauson and family are getting nicely settled in their new home on Elm Street, which, although not quite complete on the outside due to weather conditions, is complete on the inside.

The house is constructed from the ground up according to "Guildway" standards, and nothing has been overlooked to make it comfortable, attractive and permanent. Sheathing is 1 1/2" insulating board with 8" cedar bevel siding, painted white, and the roof has a layer of felt under the green asphalt strip shingles. Interior walls are finished with a coat of cement plaster with lime finish over perforated rocklath, and are painted in a stipple finish. Floors throughout are of maple, sanded and finished with wood sealer, and interior woodwork of the new-type Clear White Pine backband trim. Kitchen is complete with sink and built-in cupboards and finished in white enamel.

All lumber and building materials were furnished by Grayling Lumber and Supply Co., and Herbert Walthers had charge of the construction.

A number of people have inspected this house during its construction, and Mr. Peterson of the Grayling Lumber & Supply Co. states that anyone interested in building a home may have the opportunity of seeing Mr. Clauson's home, by making an appointment at the office of that Lumber Co.

Mr. Oscar Schumann, Publisher
Grayling, Michigan

Dear Oscar:

Had an uneventful, safe trip returning home yesterday. Rather surprised to find so much snow down here when the roads were so clear around Grayling.

I want to thank you personally for your hospitality in providing a most pleasant, enjoyable weekend at Grayling. I enjoyed the winter sports very much, and still chuckle thinking of my rendezvous with Suicide Sal on the big toboggan. I am inspired to comment again in my Michigan Mirror on the possibilities Grayling offers in the development of an outstanding winter sports playground for all Michigan if not for most of the middle west.

May I thank you again for your most cordial cooperation with this office, and assure that I will be glad to hear from you at any time.

Very sincerely yours,
Gene Alleman,
Field Manager, M.P.A.

Mr. O. P. Schumann,
Grayling, Mich.

Dear Sir:

Today when the postman delivered the Crawford Avalanche of Thursday, February 16th, I was much interested to read in "Memories of Grayling" something about the Mantz brothers, Henry and William, and their early lumbering operations in Crawford county. William Mantz is my father and today (Feb. 28) he is enjoying his 90th birthday at his home in Milwaukee. He and mother celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Nov. 2nd, 1938. His brother, Henry Mantz, was 93 years old last June. Both gentlemen are in fairly good health.

The Avalanche has been read in our home for quite a number of years. O. Palmer was the editor during that time. Many of the names of the oldtimers are familiar to me and I have in my mind a very clear picture of the Grayling of earlier days.

A friend has sent me several copies of your very interesting paper.

Yours sincerely,
Marie Mantz Hutchinson.

Ramblers Cleaned

Last night the Rambler basket ball team drove to Grayling to engage the Hanson Cafe team.

The Ramblers were definitely the losers because when they returned to the locker room after the game they found that someone had gone through their clothes and took everything but the buttons.

All the members of the team have not been contacted as yet, but so far three of the players were relieved of their billfolds containing about ten dollars in cash, together with drivers' licenses, social security cards and everything that they contained. Among other things missing were one pair of shoes, several pairs of socks and one suit of underwear.

Some of the players did not leave anything in the dressing room but they were not overlooked as they found their clothes scattered all over the floor, hid in empty lockers and more or less ruined. This is not the first time this has happened as a similar incident occurred last week when the high school played there and last year when the Ramblers visited Grayling. It seems that there is always a bunch of kids hanging around the halls and locker rooms, kids that would put "The Dead End Kids" to shame.

Here's a tip to other competing teams, "if you take any money with you be sure to get Travelers' checks or have your belongings insured." Roscommon Herald-News.

WELFARE LEADERS HELD CONFERENCE HERE

A two-day session of the ERA administrators and case workers was held in the court house here Monday and Tuesday. Nineteen counties were represented at the meetings.

There were addresses by Phillip Schaeffer, assistant state administrator, M. L. Grier, field representative, and others prominent in ERA work. The meetings were in charge of Mr. Grier.

Oldest Pioneer of Frederic Dies

Delphia M. Horton, Frederic's oldest pioneer, passed away at her home February 28.

She was born in Grand Blanc, Michigan, February 24, 1858 and grew to womanhood there. She was united in marriage in February, 1878, to Charles Z. Horton of Rochester, Michigan. The same year they came to Frederic where she and her husband homesteaded a piece of land three miles west of Frederic in what was then a dense forest inhabited by Indians. They, being the first white settlers, had many hardships.

To this union three children were born. The daughter, Phyllis, passed away in 1891. The husband and father passed away in 1929.

She is survived by her two sons, George and Harry; one sister, Mrs. Lettie Cruthers of Gregory, Michigan, and one daughter-in-law, Lydia. Also five grandchildren, Cleo, Benjamin, Katherine Horner and Charles of Frederic; Mrs. Francis McClelland of Walled Lake, Michigan, and James of Auburn Heights, Michigan, and twelve great-grandchildren.

Easter Seal Drive Opening March 20

Gerald Poor, Superintendent of Schools, was appointed chairman of the local committee for the Sixth Annual Easter Seal Sale, conducted by the Michigan Society for Crippled Children, Inc., to raise funds to aid crippled children.

The campaign will officially begin on March 20th.

Others on the committee who will aid in this annual Easter seal drive are Probate Judge Charles E. Moore and O. P. Schumann.

In acknowledging his appointment as chairman, Mr. Poor stated, "I am indeed happy to have been selected by the Michigan Society for Crippled Children, Inc., to lead our committee in such a splendid and worthwhile campaign—that of raising the necessary funds to carry forward the program of our Society dedicated to the proposition that every crippled child is entitled to, and should have opportunities for becoming a happy and useful citizen along with those who are fortunate in their physical health. I earnestly beseech all of our people to join with those in thirty other states throughout the country in buying Easter Seals to give the crippled child the right to play, learn, and work as other children.

"The Michigan Society has been a pioneer in this humanitarian work. It is the only statewide private organization composed of both lay and professional persons who are interested in every child who is crippled, regardless of his disability, age, race or religion.

"As chairman of the Sixth Annual Sale of Easter Seals I urge all of you to show your interest and support by purchasing Easter Seals."

Another Reason For Mancelona-St. Mary's Need of Straits Bridge District B. B. Champs

The recent set-up of the state fairs at the ice-bound Straits of Mackinac was carried another argument for a bridge between the two peninsulas by State Highway Commissioner Major D. VanWagoner this week. Such a structure is economically feasible.

Emphasizing that the Mackinac Bridge Authority is still studying the feasibility of the proposed bridge, the commissioner would like to "present" his argument to the members of the Authority's committees.

Experiencing the most unusual winter conditions in the history of the service, the winter of 1938-39, the Straits made only ten round-trip trips in six days last week. To make the two peninsulas in recent years a major attraction. The present schedule of the ice-fair has raised the interest in the Straits and the winter round-trip trips along the Straits have increased to 12-14.

In the final Saturday night Grand St. Marys game, it was to be a little too much for Vanwagoner and Clegg the day before to carry off the trophy and earn the right to represent this district in the Petoskey tournament.

The Man Iona-Grayling game turned out to be a surprise to most basketball followers of this section. The Green and White seemed to be unable to penetrate Mancelona's defense and saw the Northern team pile up a big margin mostly by virtue of superior height. The end of the game found Man Iona out in front to the tune of 13-29.

Saturday night Mancelona stepped out and proved Friday's victory was no fluke by defeating Oraway 26-13. This marks the first time in recent years that Mancelona has taken a district tournament. All year this rambunctious team has given promise of becoming a real basketball outfit and it really seemed to come into its own in this tournament. This weekend it will represent this district in the Regional tournament at Petoskey and if it plays up to the form shown lately the class "C" teams entered seem to be headed for a lot of trouble.

CIVIL SERVICE OR JOBS?

A lot of effort and interest has been created about the Civil Service situation in Michigan. Many public officials who should know better have contradicted this.

An overwhelming majority of the citizens of Michigan are in favor of Civil Service. They are in the majority in almost every town and city. Shipped off to the state, the details were at the same time as we understand them.

Under the previous administration of Governor Englehardt, Civil Service was opposed to draw up a Civil Service Commission. This body was headed by Dr. James K. French of the University of Michigan, an outstanding authority in government problems.

The measure drawn up by the Public Commission had no support of any kind. The members of the Muncie Men Association, an entirely non-partisan group, were exonerated. The measure included an amendment by Rep. John C. Dill, a member of Republicans and Democrats.

The men were told during the administration of Governor Murphy - who had several provisions were introduced by the State House and Senate which practically suspended the Civil Service. It may be possible to play politics in amending existing laws.

The system given to us was a fair approximation. It failed to give the state what was needed. It failed to take into account the people of Michigan better than the politicians who are now engaged in amending the law. It may be possible to play politics in amending existing laws.

The system given to us was a fair approximation. It failed to give the state what was needed. It failed to take into account the people of Michigan better than the politicians who are now engaged in amending the law. It may be possible to play politics in amending existing laws.

Thousands of Republicans in Michigan are thoroughly aroused by the threat of their own party representatives to scuttle Civil Service. They will not pay much attention to what officials in Lansing say, but they will pay a lot of attention to what they do about Civil Service - Royal Oak Daily Tribune.

This is a good time to take a peek into your attic, and store rooms, and closets and see if you haven't some articles to dispose of in the Avalanche Want Ad columns. You will be pleased if you have never tried this method to see how easy it is to dispose of things you no longer need yourself.

The Ladies National League, following their regular business meeting Wednesday evening at the Moose hall, spent the remainder of the evening socially with the gentlemen as guests. Nine tables of bunco and pinochle were enjoyed with Mrs. William Williams and John Stephan respectively holding the high scores. Lunch was served.

The amateur show given Wednesday night at the school house for the benefit of the American Legion Drum and Bugle corps, was fairly well attended. It is reported that quite a number of the attractions that had been scheduled failed to appear. The audience, however, did enjoy those that were presented. Prizes were won by a couple of CCC enrollees.

Mrs. Polly Robertson began her duties as Couzens Fund nurse Monday for the counties of Roscommon and Crawford, with headquarters in Roscommon. She was recently appointed to take the place of Miss Lora Robbins, who resigned a short time ago owing to ill health. Mrs. Robertson was formerly nurse for the Couzens Fund in Ogemaw county and so the work is not new to her.

Supt. Poor of Grayling schools reports that all teachers are now in school and that only a few pupils are still out because of illness. The present attendance is the best it has been since the beginning of the scarlet fever period that kept many homes in quarantine. At no time were there over 3 1/2 of the pupils out of school, which is a very good record. The greatest trouble was that the illness was quite prolonged. Many of the teachers too were victims. All are well and about now and soon Grayling and Grayling schools will be normal again.

The Mason-Legion Pinochle tournament went into its seventh night Tuesday at the Masonic temple, with a still larger crowd than ever before, with eight tables in play. Carl Jenson and Carlyle Brown held the high scores for the Masons and Wilfred Laurant and Alfred Hansons tied with Otto Failing and Victor Petersen for the Legion. Each side won four out of eight tables. There are exactly three more weeks to go so you Masons and Legionaires, who have not shown up yet, better hurry. Let's have a larger crowd next Tuesday evening at the Masonic Temple.

George Annis should be happy because of this fine sap weather. Freezing at night and thawing in daytime and "sugar" snow makes the sap run. George knows how to make delicious maple syrup and maple sugar.

Supt. Gerald Poor, who was a victim of scarlet fever this winter, says this was the first time he was ever kept from his school duties by illness and the first time he has had to call a physician since coming to Grayling. Certainly that's a fine record.

Robert N. Hill, Midshipman 3rd class at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, has been put on the Varsity boxing squad by Coach "Spike" Webb. Bob fought his way thru the Battalion matches and his good work was noticed by the Varsity coach. Bob fights at 125 pounds.

With the health records clear of any cases of scarlet fever, two new cases have developed in the past few days. This is probably the first time Grayling and Copenhagen, Denmark, was ever connected by phone.

Non-partisan News Letter

By GENE ALLEMAN

Lansing Michigan's state government today is in the grip of "Main Street."

Only one of six recently elected officials, Secretary of State Harry Kuhl of Detroit, comes from a town that has more than 7,000 population. And Mr. Kuhl is the only non-Solid state politician the government's newest secretary, treasurer and auditor general and all three governors having served in various capacities in towns of less than 1,000 population in Lansing.

The legislature, too, reflects "Main Street" for in the Fullerton, Michigan, session, 10 of the 16 members of the House and 10 of the 12 senators of the state legislature have been born in towns of less than 1,000 population.

There has been a steady decline in the number of people in the state's capital. In 1900 there were 10,000 people.

A Brake on Spending

Michigan's budget is not in balance, but the legislature has voted to cut down

the number of state employees and to increase the state's tax rate.

Michigan is involved state jobs was accomplished by the 1937 legislature under the title of "qualifying" examinations for all those hired prior to Jan. 1, 1938. For example, one state elected official discovered recently that the man on whom he was dependent for publicity releases, a Democratic county chairman, a state employee is protected. This is so, as the Republican official going to do about is to check into the number of state employees added during the 1937 legislature. However, the interesting fact is that outright repeal of civil service might regarding the jobs of approximately 11,000 persons who were hired prior to Jan. 1, 1937—

many of them during the first

Fraser administration.

Senator Brake's Bill

Among the bills is one sponsored by Senator T. Ward Brake of Stanton which would compel all employees hired between Jan. 1, 1937 and Jan. 1, 1938, to take qualifying examinations. It has competitive examinations.

This bill would also eliminate present employee lists and would exempt from civil service examinations persons whose
